Accel and Pulse Network Fees

Global Payments has been notified that Accel and Pulse announced modifications to the current rates effective May 1, 2010. The actual changes are as follows:

Accel – May 1, 2010

- Retail merchants will be billed at 0.80% + $0.21 per transaction.
- Quick Service Restaurant (QSR) merchants will be billed at 0.95% + $0.18 per transaction and the maximum fee for QSR transactions has been eliminated.
- Supermarket merchants will be billed at $0.31 per transaction.
- Petroleum merchants will be billed at 0.80% + $0.19 per transaction with no maximum transaction fee. These transactions were previously bundled with Retail and will now post separately.
- PINless Utility merchants will now post separately from regular PINless and will be billed at $0.660 per transaction.
- All other PINless transactions will be billed at 0.75% + $0.21 per transaction with a maximum transaction fee of $1.28.

Pulse – May 1, 2010

- Retail merchants will be billed at 0.86% + $0.21 per transaction.
- Supermarket merchants will now be billed $0.345 per transaction.
- Petroleum merchants will be billed at 0.71% + $0.21 per transaction with a maximum transaction fee of $1.03. These transactions were previously bundled with Retail and will now post separately.
- PINless Utility merchants will be billed at $0.755 per transaction.
- All other PINless transactions will be billed at 0.80% + $0.27 per transaction.
- The PINless switch fee was reduced from $0.07 to $0.06. Please note that this is not disclosed separately to the merchants. The switch fees are bundled in the published rates.
